concerning the extraordinary style in which THE HUGUENOTS will be produced in the second work of March.

THE HUGUENOTS,

THE HUGUENOTS has been in preparation for upwards of three months. Over two bundred persons are employed in geting this Operaup. The Director believes that, through unremitting labor on his past, and on that of the artists and the employees, he will be able strictly to fulfill the tempting promises playees, he will be able strictly to fulfill the rempting promises beld out in this announcement.

1. Five new scenes, painted by Allerji, Calyo and Heister, being principally copies of those used in Paris at the Imperial Opera House.

2. Alsent three hundred dresses, part of which has been made in Paris, by the costumer of the Grand Opera, the rest has been manufactured here from original arrawings; they will exactly correspond to the epoch in which the action takes place (1572).

3. A regular chorus of seventy, instead of the sean number of thirty-five.

5. A regular choice of seventy, instead of the destruction of the thirty-five.

4. In the conjugation scene (in which the destruction of the Pretestants is plotted by the Casholics), an extra chorus of one handred and thirty will be added; thus making the united choral force two hundred strong, being the largest number ever employed in any Opera Rome of Europe or America.

5. The regular Orchestra of sixty, instead of the awall number of forty, to which will be added in the third act, when the Quieen and her laddes of honor arrive on horseback, an extra band of research.

From the Hon. R. B. Taney, Chief Justice of the United States.

"It is a work of much value and well executed. The heads under which the different Acts of Congress are arranged, are well chosen and appropriate; and what is will more important, the Index. as far as I have been able to examine it, is complete. The book has evidently been prepared with much care and judgment, and will, I doubt not, be very acceptable to the public."

From the Hon. R. C. Grier, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States.

"The work does boner not only to the learning and industry of the author, but to the publishers for the very handsome manner in which it is executed. Those who prefer to have the statute in a dig-sted form will find it a very valuable book."

From the Hon. Isase. F. Redfield, Chief Justice of Vermont.

PART IV now ready, of MRS. WATTS SHERMAN'S TRANSLATION

BEATRICE CENCI,
Competing the work. Price 38 cents.

This is the only English translation of the entire work, and fills 193 pages, while the other translation by Luigi Monti omits important portions, and requires but 562 similar pages. Mrs. Sherman's translation will be issued in a day or two in two volumes, 12mo. Price, in paper covers, $1; cloth, $1.50; baif caif, $3.

To Runn & Carleton: Our recent exposure of your "awk-ward indiscretions" seems to have done you little good, for in your Herculean effort in Saturday's Tribune you make at least use even more "awkward mistake" than those we have before year Herculean effort in Saturday's Thome you make at least one even more "awkward mistake "than those we have before called your attention to.

In a previous note to you we made three charges, vis:

In the your edition of Beatrice Cenci is abridged, omitting important portions of the original work.

This is the most important point in the whole matter, for you have been pertinaceously advertising, far and wide, that your edition was "materiated," the complete work," &c. Albedged, you occupy a full column in The Tribune with this matter, post one tenture to dany bits charge. Here is one "mistake," then, of which you stand convicted, and a very awkward one it is.

2. We charge you with having known some years since that Mrs. Sherman had commenced a translation of this work.

You reply to this charge in these words: "This is simply false."

false."
Our rejoinder is the following, from a third party, being a STATEMENT OF MR. JAMES H. THOMAS.
On or about the 27th of January last, Mr. Carleton, of the firm of Ruid & Carleton, called at the counting-room of Messra Mason Brothers, and, in the course of conversation, stated to them, in my hearing, that when in Rome, about three years since, he knew that Mrs. Watts Sherman was there, and ladd in progress a translation of Guerazzi's "Bestrice Cenel."
(Signed)
New York, Feb. 27, 1858.
Here, then, is another very, very awkward "mistake" on your part.

Here, then, is another very, cry awaward "mistake" of your part.

3. We accused you of a "mistake" in saying that your edition had "the sanction of Harvard University."

You attempt to excuse yourselves by the vance assertion that it has "the santion of gentlemen high in authority in the said University." We hope this is not also a "mistake," but it certainly is a very different thing from having "the sanction of Harvard University." Perhaps you can give us the name of one of the gentlemen "high in authority in Harvard University "who gives his sanction to your book.

Thus it seems that of our three charges you virtually admit, by not denying, two, while the remaining one, which you flatly deny, (your memory is poor, perhaps.) we prove out of your own mouth, by the evidence of a third party, which evidence can be had in the shape of an affidavit, with two of similar import appended to it, if necessary.

Yours, &c.
